

Ashford Community Home Appliance Swap

USER MANUAL

1. User of the application

The User of the website are the people in Ashford community who would like to swap their home appliances with others who are interested in the home appliances that they possess.

It happens that the user is having a home appliance but is not using it anymore, then he can list that home appliance in the application and swap with someone who is interested in it and get a home appliance that the user is interested as a offer for the same.

2. Registration

User can sign in to the application from the registration page:

- a. Click on Sign In on the top of the screen.
- b. Click on register at the bottom.
- c. Enter your details and click on sign up.

Note: Please provide the valid values in all the fields.

3. Sign In

A. All the registered users can sign in the application using their valid UserID and password.

B. Unregistered users need to sign up to be able to sign in.

4. List of available appliances for swap.

A. Click on Categories on the site navigation bar.

A. If you are logged in, you will see all the appliances that you are not associated with.

B. If you are not logged in, you would be able to see all the appliances.

5. View the user's appliances

A. User will be able to view his appliances by clicking on My Appliances link on the general Navigation Bar which is present on top of the page. The user can update the status on My appliances page.

6. Detailed Description about the appliance

Click on the hyperlink of the appliance present in Categories page to view the details of the appliance.

7. Making an offer

You can swap the appliance by following below steps.

A. Click on categories.

B. Go to the appliance you want to swap.

C. Click on Offer button present on the item page.

8. Deleting an appliance from your profile

The user can delete the appliance by navigating to My appliances page and clicking on Delete button.

9.Respond to an offer

You can respond to swap requests by going to “MySwaps” page and either clicking Accept or Reject Button.

10.Ratings

1.You can rate the appliance and the owner of the appliance for the appliances that you are already swapped.

2.Go to “Myappliances” and click on update to be able to navigated to feedback page.